

”

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Scientists are invited to submit abstracts for poster presentation. PhD students and post-docs are particularly encouraged to submit their work.

Late abstracts selected for poster presentation cannot be included in The EMBO Meeting 2010 Abstract Book due to printing restrictions, however printouts will be distributed at the conference.

LATE BREAKING ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY 30 JULY 2010

All participants submitting an abstract will be notified of the result accordingly after the submission deadline.

Please note that only ONLINE submission from The EMBO Meeting official website (www.the-embo-meeting.org) will be accepted. Abstracts sent by e-mail, fax or post will NOT be considered. Abstracts must not advertise a commercial product.

Abstract preparation:

- Abstracts must be submitted in English.
- Do not include the names of authors. Author names and affiliations will be registered separately during online abstract submission.
- Include a brief title to clearly indicate the nature of the study.
- Do not use abbreviations in the title.
- The entire abstract must fit in the text box on the online abstract form. Use “Times New Roman 8 point” font and single line spacing for all abstract text.
- Maximum number of characters is 2,000 excluding the title, including spaces.
- Graphics and tables are not permitted.
- Please check the spelling and grammar carefully. The abstract will be reproduced from your online submission - any errors in spelling, grammar or scientific data will appear in print.
- Where possible please use the following subheadings in italic font:
 - Objectives: a sentence describing the purpose of the study
 - Methods: description of observations or experimental subjects
 - Results: description of results in a logical sequence
 - Conclusions: emphasis on important aspects of the study and conclusions drawn from them.